4. New Business:

a. Tim Ness & Form and Function: According to Rosie Narez, via the instruction from Tim Ness at the end of July, it's recommended that the All-America City Committee continue moving forward with it's plans and ideas, however, wait until start of 2010 to present changes to form and function to City Council. Its suggested committee waits a few months so that Council can view the changes along with the upcoming elections for new committee members.

b. Community Meetings: Committee members are once again asked to sign-up for at least two meetings if he/she hasn't already done so.

c. Neighborhood Block Captain Program: Also as a result of the direction from Tim Ness, he'd like the All-America City Committee to continue to move forward with this pilot program, but emphasize that it is a new program and one that will have to be reduced to a much smaller scale.

5. Old Business:

- a. Autumn Arts, Grapes, and Grains: All-America City Committee is interested in participating. Rosie Narez will ensure a table and canopies are both set-ups, as well as look into the purchase of some goodies to give away. Jose Huitron will work on collage of the various events the committee has participated in since it's been around.
- b. Status on AACCC Canned Message: Canned message is done, however, many members have old copies so Rosie Narez will put a date on it and re-send it via email so everyone has the latest version.
- c. 2010 Census: The committee would like to help spread the word about the census. It'll revisit this matter after the community meetings.

6. Committee Member Reports:

- a. Rosemarie Mongosong: Suggested asking Chamber to participate in Autumn Arts, Grapes, and Grains. Checked with them and the chamber declined.
- b. Bob Orach: Astonished at how only 7% of Californians polled knew who their state senator is...this according to a meeting he attended for the cities of the Tri-Counties.
- c. Jose Huitron: Commented on the new brochures the Chamber of Commerce has at Jamba Juice. May be worth picking up.

7. Staff Report: N/A

8. Adjourn to next regular business meeting: Adjourned @ 6:35 p.m.
