Lompoc Photographers Guild to Exhibit at the Library

The Shepard Hall Gallery at the Santa Maria Public Library will feature the work of the Lompoc Photographers Guild during the month of September. The exhibit, titled "Slice of Life", is based upon the concept of moments or things that exemplify our humanness.

The Guild is comprised of nearly 30 members and meets monthly to share and discuss images based on a theme selected for that month. Guest speakers are invited and the Guild regularly takes photography field trips together.

Guild members participating in the "Slice of Life" exhibit are: Sherrie Chavez, Debby Fuller, Martin Schaefer, Autumn Long, Dibblee Hoyt, Lynda Schiff, Jane Kametani, Cathy Gregg, Joseph Dowdy, Veronica Dowdy, Renee Miranda and Phyllis Daniels.

The show opens September 1st and continues through September 30th. Shepard Hall is on the first floor of the Library at 421 S. McClelland Street in downtown Santa Maria. The Library's hours are 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, and 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays. The Library is closed on Sundays.

The exhibit is part of the Santa Maria Public Library's comprehensive Art and Culture Program designed to present rotating exhibitions of local and regional artists.

Questions about exhibition opportunities for art at the Library may be directed to Cultural Events Coordinator Deborah Hildinger at the Santa Maria Public Library, 925-0951 ext 117.
